

BAPTIST CARE AUSTRALIA

SYDNEY | MAY 28-30 2018

Everyone is Welcome

CULTURAL DIVERSITY | COMPETENCE | HARMONY

Monday 28 May 2018

1:30pm	Aged care advocacy forum All who work in aged care in Baptist Care Australia member organisations are invited to join a discussion about aged care reform, and help develop our long term vision for the future of the aged care system. What do we think aged care should look like in 20 years? How could this vision be realised? And how do we differ from current visions such as the Aged Care Roadmap and NACA's Blueprint for Reform?
3:30pm	Afternoon tea
3:45pm - 5:00pm	Aged care advocacy forum continued
6:00pm	Welcome reception and welcome to country

Tuesday 29 May 2018

8:00am	Registration
9:00am	Official Opening Rob Ellis - Conference MC Graham Dangerfield - Baptist Care Australia, Board Chair
9:15am	Morning Reflection: A christian take on difference and inclusion (part 1) Geoff Wraight - Chaplaincy Circle of Excellence Chair
9:30am	Keynote: All about culture - what is it, how does it create unconscious bias, and what should we do about it? Mariam Veiszadeh
10:30am	Morning tea
11:00am	Keynote: Government for everyone: how do we make good public policy in a diverse and pluralistic society? Richard Dennis - Chief Economist, Australia Institute
11:50am	Two tribes - bridging the gulf between progressives and conservatives Marcia Balzer - Executive Director, Baptist Care Australia
12:40pm	Platinum sponsor address: Samsung
1:00pm	Lunch
1:45pm	Engagement and a collaborative approach to service delivery for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities What are the important considerations for engaging in collaborative models of care for ATSI people? Learn from the success of family and relationship services organisation, Interrelate, and Baptist Care SA in providing culturally-appropriate services for ATSI people in a mainstream service. Patricia Occelli, Stuart McMinn (Interrelate) Nicki Morey, Phil Bunyon (Baptist Care SA)	Culturally competent aged care - what does it look like? In an environment of increasing focus on individual consumers' needs, how do we deliver aged care services that respect and value a wide range of cultures? What sort of cultural challenges are we likely to see, and how do we successfully overcome those challenges? Cathy Monro (PhD candidate) Tracey Osmond (Scalabrini Village)	In it for the long haul - caring for ourselves and others when working with trauma When you work in caring professions, exposure to others' trauma is an occupational hazard. This session covers theoretical and practical aspects of responding to the risk in yourself, your colleagues, and the team members you manage. Ian Warner, Baptist Care SA Emma Malone, Carinity
3:00pm	Afternoon tea
3:30pm	Short bites: Baptist Care SA and Baptist Care NT
3:45pm	Making a real difference - the latest on measuring client outcomes and why we should care Ann MacRae (Bapticare), Paull English (BaptistCare NSW & ACT), Mike Furner (Baptistcare NSW & ACT)
4:50pm	Close day one
6:30pm	Conference dinner

Wednesday 30 May 2018

8:45am	Registration
9:00am	Morning Reflection: A Christian take on difference and inclusion (part 2) Jenny Blok - Senior Chaplain, BaptistCare NSW & ACT
9:15am	Short bites: BaptistCare NSW & ACT and Baptcare
9:30am	Keynote: The strengths, challenges and competitive advantage of a diverse and inclusive workforce Liz Griffin - Head of Diversity and Inclusion, Commonwealth Bank
10:30am	Morning tea
11:00am	Getting in early to prevent family violence by focussing on children Hear about two new approaches to family violence prevention by caring for the children and young people who have experienced it. Carinity's David Burck sets out a program devised for young men and their mothers to address the early signs of family violence in young men exposed to violence in their homes. Baptcare's Hayley Robinette and Liana Muscat will then discuss a new place-based demonstration program that uses close collaborations within a community to help children and young people who are survivors of family violence.	Funding social housing - the role and opportunity of social impact investing This session sets out the latest research on the potential role of social impact investment in providing much-needed social housing in Australia. You'll also hear how the some of Baptist Care network is funding current and future projects. Join a lively discussion of opportunities and barriers to building social housing. Kristy Muir (Centre for Social Impact, UNSW), Mike Furner (BaptistCare NSW & ACT), Ray Bongiorno (Baptcare), Russell Bricknell (Baptistcare)	Food glorious food! Connecting with clients and culture through food Great food and good nutrition are essential to wellbeing in older age. Join this interactive session to learn how to elevate your dining room experience and reap the rewards. Cherie Hugo (The Lantern Project) and Cater Care
12:15pm	Lunch
1:00pm	Short bites: Carinity and Baptistcare
1:15pm	Update on the Royal Commission and National Redress Scheme for Victims of Institutional Child Abuse Keith Jobberns - Australian Baptist Ministries
1:45pm	Keynote: Can Australia achieve true, lasting reconciliation with Indigenous people? Stan Grant - Journalist, author and ABC news presenter
2:45pm	Conference wrap up and prize draw
3:00pm	Conference close
3:15pm - 5:00pm	Women's leadership forum		